

Marcos Meseguer, Ph.D.

Dr. Marcos Meseguer received his Biological Sciences Degree from the University of Valencia in Spain. He performed a pre-doctoral fellowship in St Mary's Hospital, Manchester University, United Kingdom. He received his PhD Degree in Obstetrics and Gynecology and the European Doctor Degree from the University of Valencia, Spain. He has also a master degree in Research Methods, Design and Statistics from Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona, Spain.

Actually, he is Scientific Supervisor and Senior Embryologist in the IVF unit of IVIRMA Valencia. Dr. Meseguer has received twice the prize paper of the American Society of Reproductive Medicine (ASRM), five times the Star Award from ASRM, three times the Lalor Foundation International Award from the American Society of Andrology, three times the research award from the Spanish Society of Fertility and 6 times the research award from the Spanish Society of Embryology. He received the Robert Edwards prize paper award from RBM on line and was ASRM star award winner. The primary areas of his research are embryology and male infertility.

As Principal Investigator, his work has been funded through 25 projects sponsored by the Spanish Government, including ten EUREKA projects (granted to high quality technological projects) supported by the European Community). He has two international patents.

He is part of the group of researchers most cited in the world. According to Stanford University he has published over 210 scientific articles, with 11500 citations and h-index of 61, including the most cited paper in Human Reproduction. Additionally, he published 70 reviews or book chapters, edited the first time-lapse book and made more than 750 presentations at national and international congresses. He has been the Director of 16 Doctoral Thesis all qualified with "Cum Laude", and actually is directing seven PhD candidates.

He is also Associate Professor of the Master in Biotechnology from Valencia University.